Why Statesmen Exists

With an ecosystem full of innovative options, Washington DC has become a laboratory for the newest iteration of education equity and reform. Still, 20 years in full swing with untold billions in full investment, the group needing the most out of that movement is now even further behind. The achievement gap for Black and Latino males continues to be largely unresponsive to many well-intended and well-designed innovations. At Statesmen College Preparatory Academy for Boys PCS, we believe that this can and must change. Statesmen is founded on the core belief that high levels of achievement for male students experiencing urban poverty is not just possible, it's what we're here for.

What Statesmen Does

The recipe engaged to accomplish this task may seem complex but has two primary ingredients - high expectations combined with warm, caring and trusting relationships. Given a tight knit crew and a worthy cause, our boys are unstoppable. The vision of Statesmen is that the young male scholars who attend the academy one day lead in communities that they redesign. Always working in pursuit of the values of Relationships, Rigor, Relevance and Resilience, the mission is to create a boy-friendly pedagogy-informed academic environment within which young male scholars are equipped with the academic skills, social competencies, and personal development necessary to navigate life challenges, attend and complete the college of their choice, and return to become the premier agents of social change within and for the communities they serve.

What Makes This Work

Passionate, committed, resilient, focused, self-aware, mature, mission-aligned adults who embody personal and professional efficacy are necessary to carry this work forward. Statesmen is not a place to work. More than that, it is a place to live out a mission, a calling, a design for impact and a desire for legacy. Consider these internal drivers:

- You Do People! You believe that people are better when they are deeply known and unconditionally loved.
- You Do Results! You can't be satisfied with struggling students getting "a little bit better."
- You Do Focus! You believe that "Black Lives Matter", that "Brown Lives Matter", that "Boys Lives Matter" and that caring for them doesn't mean not caring for others.
- You Do Not Quit! You may not have all the answers, but you know and believe that all the answers are out there and you will not stop until these young men win.

If that sound like you, welcome to Statesmen. Welcome home!
